

NIAHOPE TATTOO

Intentional & Ceremonial Tattooing

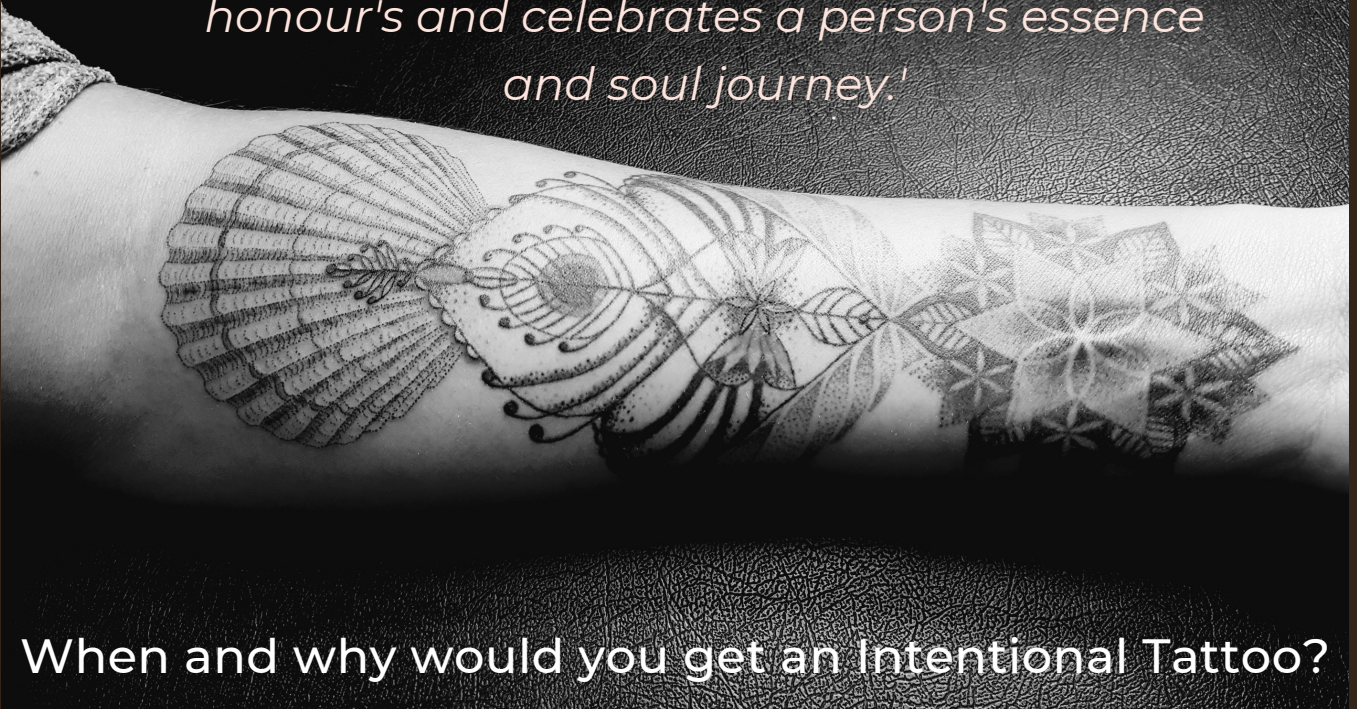

Welcome!

I'm honoured that you are considering me to mark your beautiful skin and assist you with your soul's expression

'Intentional Tattooing is a language that connects Light & Matter - Adornment that honour's and celebrates a person's essence and soul journey.'

When and why would you get an Intentional Tattoo?

- At times of transformation, initiation, and growth
- To support personal empowerment
- To honour an old cycle and welcome in a new one
- To support the embodiment of soul gifts
- To help the integration of healing and life experiences
- At the time of a Rite of Passage
- At any time you are wishing to express and strengthen your authenticity and beauty

INTENTION & CONSULTATION

During the initial consultation you will be asked to share your heartfelt intentions and wishes for your tattoo so it is important to reflect on this yourself first.

During the consultation I often receive intuitive ideas and images based on what you share and will also help you decide on the placement of your tattoo which is an important factor in the energy and healing that the tattoo can offer to you.

VISION & DESIGN

You may have a clear vision about a tattoo that is asking to adorn you or you may have just a very vague idea but are feeling a clear call to be tattooed - each persons process is different

I will work together with you to create your unique talismanic design that is my intuitive interpretation of what your soul is wishing to express, integrate and/or heal through the tattoo.

I also offer one of a kind pre-drawn designs that will only be tattooed once which may be just right for you.

I will work closely with you to make any adjustments and additions until the design feels complete. Please kindly consider that when you appoint an artist to create a custom design for you, this design is also a part of the artist's expression and style and so requires a level of artistic freedom and letting go/trust in the process.

§ACRED §PACE

For both intentional tattoo sessions and tattoo ceremonies I create a safe and sacred space for you to be marked in. This means that the environment is energetically clear and that I take time before and during your session to set my own intentions, grounding & focus.

Tattooing takes a lot of focus and presence and can be a meditative experience for the artist and the person receiving it.

Please approach your tattoo session as if you were going for a massage or healing treatment ~ quiet your mind, step away from everyday life and allow yourself to be in the receptive mode so that we can fully focus on the intention behind your tattoo and I can hold the space and conduct the tattooing in the best way possible.

PREPARATION

- Following our consultation we will choose a suitable date for your tattoo session.
- Approx 1-2 weeks before your session I will create your design on paper and digital format based on your intentions and the clarity that we received during the consultation. If you have chosen a pre-drawn design I can also make any adjustments to your specifications. (If there are many this then becomes a custom design)
- Approaching your appointment I will check in with you with the design updates and will work with you to make any adjustments until the design feels complete.

INTENTIONAL TATTOOS

We will revisit your intentions and wishes at the beginning of the session.

In preparation for the tattoo process, a stencil is applied to your skin which takes around 10-15 minutes to dry.

During this time I can offer you energetic cleansing with sacred oils or smudge, hands on healing, guided meditation or you can simply relax.

TATTOO CEREMONY

- We will revisit your intentions and wishes at the beginning of the session and I will open ceremonial space.
- The healing elements that may be included in your session can be Ceremonial Cacao, Oracle cards, Sacred Oils, Floral Acupuncture (non-invasive) Energetic Cleansing, Hands on Healing and Sound Healing. This will depend on the time of the session, what tools that I have available (as I travel between countries to work) and how I am intuitively guided to support you.

- Once I have applied the stencil it will need some time to dry and I will guide you in a meditation that will help you to receive the art onto your body.
- At the end of your session once the tattooing process is complete for that day I will offer you another meditation that will help you to integrate the energy of the design.
